Women in Consulting

Learn about career opportunities at BCG Tel Aviv

Final year students, fresh alumni and young professionals -
Join us to learn about the growth opportunities BCG offers and hear some personal stories from our female consultants

Sunday, January 17, 2016, 18:00 - Tel Aviv

Exact location will be sent separately to confirmed participants

The Boston Consulting Group (BCG) is a global management consulting firm and the world's leading advisor on business strategy, founded in 1963. Women are crucial to the success of BCG and our clients' businesses. Empathy, diplomacy, interpersonal skills and intellectual curiosity are just a few of the qualities women often bring, qualities which are highly valued in business.

If you are eager to discover how women successfully conquer the consulting and business world and curious about career opportunities at BCG, we encourage you to register for our Women in Consulting information session.

Number of seats is limited. Please register by January 3rd at this link

We hope to see you there!
